Leadership Program

SCHOLARSHIP

Application

About

The EBL Leadership Program is an eight month program consisting of eight, two-hour classes. The goal of the program is to provide the opportunity for young professionals to learn and develop strong leadership skills that will provide them the tools to be inspired leaders and represent our community boldly as the advancement of our region continues.

Classes take place the second Friday of each month from 8am-10am, from 8am-10am at the Dopkins & Company, LLP offices in Williamsville. All participants must attend a minimum of six out of the eight courses in order to receive a certificate of completion.

The Bonefish Grill and Bryant & Stratton College Scholarship will cover the cost of the EBL Leadership Program for two individuals during the 2019 program. The scholarships are limited to the coverage of the program's eight classes and do not include any additional events or programs.
